“If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.”

St Luke, ch. 19, vv 41-42
Deir Yassin Day this year falls on Good Friday.

Early in the morning of Friday, 9th April, 1948, the peaceful village of Deir Yassin was attacked. The ensuing massacre marked the beginning of the Palestinian dispossession and exile, which continues 56 years on.

Today Deir Yassin stands, unnamed and unmarked, in clear sight of the Holocaust memorial at Yad Vashem.

This Good Friday, please remember Deir Yassin and the Palestinian people.
